Why should you choose the Grenoble CUEF?

Surrounded by three mountain ranges, Grenoble, dubbed the capital of the Alps, is renowned for its outdoor activities, thriving technology scene and first-rate sports and culture facilities.

The CUEF, which is part of the Université Grenoble Alpes (UGA), welcomes you all year round. The Centre is located in the heart of one of the most beautiful university campuses in France, covering over 175 hectares near Grenoble city centre and is accessible by tram and bike.

Notable alumni

Masako Owada, Empress Consort of Japan

Jackie Kennedy, former First Lady of the United States

A long-standing French as a Foreign Language (FLE) course provider, having started in 1896, the Grenoble CUEF has been awarded 3 stars, the highest rating, for the 5 criteria evaluated by the quality label.

In choosing the Grenoble CUEF, you are guaranteed quality training and supervision!

Planning your stay

Made up your mind? Simply follow these 4 steps:

1- Book your course: fill in the pre-enrolment document available on our website and return it by email along with the booking and administration fees (the remainder must be paid on arrival).

2- Request your visa using the booking confirmation letter we will send you.

3- Choose and book your accommodation: the CUEF offers personalised support and supervision.
Host families: between €375 and €1,050 / month*
Student housing: between €310 and €710 / month*
Apartment hotel: between €28 and €80 / night*
 rates given solely for information purposes. Students must book and pay for the accommodation directly.*

4- Take the online test: a test to complete is sent to you a few days before your arrival. You will be placed in a group corresponding to your level from day one of the course.

The CUEF is developing partnerships (with universities, agencies, etc.) which give access to preferential rates. We organise your learning programme and language stay together:

- . Flexible courses
- . Personalised welcome
- . Programme of cultural and sports activities (skiing, hiking, cooking classes, etc.)

During your stay

Welcome to the Grenoble CUEF!

You will enjoy the same advantages as students enrolled at the Université Grenoble Alpes and benefit from a whole host of services specifically for international students:
