A friendly atmosphere, a remarkable natural setting

In the heart of the Alps, the CUEF – Centre Universitaire d'Études Françaises (University Centre for French Studies) – welcomes you throughout the year, offering French classes adapted to your needs and trainings to teach French as a foreign language (FLE).

The CUEF of Grenoble

- teaches over 3,000 students per year, coming from hundreds of different countries,
- welcomes more than one thousand candidates during examination and certification periods,
- handles the training of a large number of teachers, also during missions abroad,
- has around 40 lecturers and educational specialists with multiple specialisms, some of whom are authors of reference and methodological works.

A place for interactions and encounters since 1896

Our centre has expanded out of a constant concern for quality and innovation. It has acquired and subsequently maintained its position as an establishment of excellence for the teaching of FLE (FLE quality certification since its creation in 2007).

A stimulating environment

The Université Grenoble Alpes has over 50,000 students, more than 200 Master's specialisms, 12 doctoral schools and 93 research laboratories. Engineering sciences, hard sciences, management, political science, literature and languages are some of the examples of the variety of courses offered on the same campus.
