Presentation

Discover the CUEF and meet our team upon arrival.

Welcome meeting

On the first day of each intensive course, the CUEF welcomes its new students and informs them at a welcome meeting.

Campus tour

The welcome meeting is followed by a campus tour, to show you the key places of your stay at the CUEF.

Payment of the course fees

The full payment of the course fees must be made at the CUEF Reception office before the course starts and at the latest on the first week of the course.

Course start

You must attend all classes since day one. Any absence must be justified. Attendance is compulsory. The student charter must be respected.

CUEF student card

In a more eco-friendly approach, the CUEF has decided to dematerialize its student card. You email us a photo and we email you your student card and your registration certificate, subject to the full payment of the course.

Internet username and password

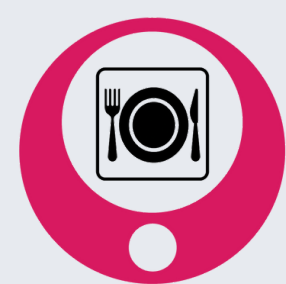

You will need a UGA username and a password to use the Internet on campus. You receive an email with a link to your username and the creation of your password. Have you not received anything? Check your spam folder and search for the key word "Copass".
